is a signature event that celebrates the achievement of women who have excelled exceptional leadership, both in their organizations and within the community.

YWCA's Tribute to Women Awards has a legacy of honoring trailblazing women. When the Awards began 38 years ago, YWCA Golden Gate Silicon Valley recognized the achievements of 25 executive women and their companies for their commitment to expanding professional opportunities for women. This event was one of the many ways YWCA was breaking ground in Silicon Valley.

This tradition known as the Tribute to Women Awards continues today with over 1,900 women having been recognized for their outstanding achievements in the workplace and beyond.
